

I am an Iowa resident.
Do I need to file an Iowa Income Tax Return?

I am under 65

My filing status is Single.

My Iowa Net Income
is $ 9,000 or less.

No. You do not need to file an Iowa Income Tax Return.

Yes. You must file a return if your filing status is Single and have Iowa Net Income over $9,000.

My filing status is other than Single.

My Iowa Net Income
is $13,500 or less.

No. You do not need to file an Iowa Income Tax Return.

Yes. You must file a return if your filing status is other than Single and have Iowa Net Income over $13,500.

I am 65 or older

My filing status is Single

My Iowa Net Income
is $24,000 or less

No. You do not need to file an Iowa Income Tax
Return

Yes. You must file a return if your filing status is Single and have Iowa Net Income over $24,000.

My filing status is other
than Single

My Iowa Net Income
is $32,000 or less

No. You do not need to file an Iowa Income Tax
Return

Yes. You must file a return if your filing status is other than Single and have Iowa Net Income over $32,000.

Do you still need to file a tax return? File electronically!

File your federal and Iowa returns together through our Web site at: www.iowa.gov/tax

You may qualify to file electronically for free!